On April 8, 1980, this order, which was issued against James Edward Domer, Alaska Bail Bonding of Anchorage, Alaska, for alleged violations of AS 21.27.-330 and 21.27.350, was vacated due to Mr. Domer's compliance with the law.

SHOW CAUSE ORDER 80-2

On August 13, 1980, this order against Reed Stenhouse, Incorporated of Washington for violations of AS 21.33.041 and AS 21.36.125(5) was vacated due to the firm's compliance with the conditions established by the resulting order.

SHOW CAUSE ORDER 80-3

On April 29, 1980, Martin Rincon was found to have omitted answers on his insurance agent's application which were material to the issuance of a license. The director ordered the Combined Insurance Company of America to be responsible for closely monitoring Mr. Rincon's activities and that the company was responsible for any further violations by Mr. Rincon.

ORDER 79-3

On August 2, 1979, the director ordered that evidence verified that Atlantic and Gulf States Insurance Company was financially unsound and that World Underwriters Northwest, Incorporated, shall not place any business with the company since it was now determined that the company was not qualified for surplus lines underwriting in Alaska. The director further ordered that prior to placing any Alaskan risks with an insurance company not on the division's approved surplus lines list, World Underwriters Northwest, Incorporated, shall provide proof to the division that they have complied with AS 21.33.180.

ORDER 79-4

On September 24, 1979, the director ordered that Alaska Title Guaranty Company was authorized to retain its excess investment in real estate until January 1, 1981.

ORDER 79-5

On November 27, 1979, the director ordered that the Intercompany Reinsurance Agreement for the sharing of premiums, losses and expenses in a pooling arrangement between the Property and Casualty Companies in the Great American Insurance Companies Group was approved, as amended with the inclusion of Great American Insurance Company of Alaska as a participant. The director further ordered that the 120 day notice to the director was acceptable, and that the Great American Insurance Company of Alaska shall, between them, maintain sufficient separately identifiable records concerning the direct business written by the Alaska company as to enable a full and complete NAIC examination of the affairs of the company as if the agreement did not exist. An Addendum was added to the Order limiting the approval to a period of one year from December 31, 1979 to January 1, 1981 and specifying that the Great American Insurance Company of Alaska will maintain a place of business in Alaska along with a complete set of records in its principal place of business. The director further ordered that an examination was to take place at the close of 1980 as to the condition of the Great American Insurance Company of Alaska and to determine whether the company is a true domestic insurer in accordance with the definitions of AS 21.69.390 and also to determine the eligibility of the company for the five year tax exemption period.

ORDER 79-6

On November 21, 1979, the director notified all resident and nonresident surplus lines brokers that British National Life Insurance Society, Limited, was being taken off the division's eligible unauthorized insurer's list because the company had failed to meet the NAIC criteria for a nonadmitted insurer.
